I cannot stress how good a job Bruno has done on the Dual ALIEN power system controller and helping me wire the whole thing up eers Mate!! I now have to get a nice looking deck-any ideas- I have been looking at a Earthwing Super glider Carbon edition or possibly a Bustin Sportser (from America) its got to be something fitting to suit the nice ...

There are 2 switches, a side mounted system wide power switch and top mount momentary power switch. The side switch, when in the off position, completely powers off the remote. When in the on position the remote is still technically off, as you have to use the top momentary switch to turn the remote on and off. From APS documentation...
