Why does Biden want to make solar panels?

So it's also good that Smart Energy Today, the seed of Lumio, preferred domestic components in its solar arrays, also necessary to obtain some of the state and federal financial incentives. Solar advocates say there's good reason for the Biden administration to be interested in manufacturing.

Is utility-scale solar better than rooftop solar?

While Utility-scale solar is cheaper than rooftop solar, rooftop is more likely to make a bigger difference in our energy mix and in decreasing carbon emissions because it is easier to install in small pieces. It also doesn't kill birds, take up miles of pristine land in the Mojave, or require billions of dollars in financing.
