Do you recommend Boundless for solar?

I don't recommend them for Solar for a handful of reasons but the main one being that they're not actually a solar company. They just sell contracts for freedom forever and sunrun. If you ever end up needing anything, good luck getting help from boundless after they take your money.

Is boundless a real company?

I have had a look at Boundless Inc.'s website. It appears they are based out of MA but serve many States including MD and VA, mostly on the East and West Coast. Great, they are a large company, but this raises a red flag. This creates the illusion they have worked (and are licensed etc. ) in many States, but this may not be the case.
