What is sola scriptura?

Sola scriptura, sometimes referred to as the formal principle of the Reformation, is the belief that "only Scripture, because it is God's inspired Word, is our inerrant, sufficient, and final authority for the church" (God's Word Alone, 23). Notice, the basis of sola scriptura is Scripture's inspired nature.

What is the difference between Solus Christus and sola gratia?

Solus Christus is the assertion that Christ alone is the basis on which the ungodly are justified in God's sight. Sola fide maintains that the believer receives the redemption Christ has accomplished only through faith. Sola gratia proclaims that all of our salvation, from beginning to end, is by grace and grace alone.
